@ The VTC Hackathon for Retail Recovery amid COVID-19

27 March 2021

Co-organized by the Discipline and Innoedge Consulting Limited with the support of Hong Kong General Chamber of Commerce, Hong Kong Retail Management Association and Hong Kong Retail Technology Industry Association, twenty IVE Business students from Higher Diplomas in Retail and e-Tail Management, International Business Management with Languages as well as Human Resource Management participated in the research for Retail Recovery amid COVID-19 conducted in July 2020.

Students were led by the consulting teams from Innoedge and conducted the research by going through the design thinking process. In the VTC Hackathon for Retail Recovery amid COVID-19 held on 27 March 2021, the students presented the findings and the blueprint for implementation to the judges. This was an exceptional experience for students to enhance their skills on collaboration, communication and teamwork.

Marks & Spencer and Kongstories Internship Attachment

Students from Higher Diploma in Retail and e-Tail Management met Kongstories and the retailers.

Students from Higher Diploma in Retail and e-Tail Management joined an internship attachment with Marks & Spencer (M&S), covering 3 digital projects namely Shopping Experience from Food Apps and E-Commerce Channels, Store Service and NPS Score Enhancement as well as Competitive Shopping. Presentations on the projects were conducted to the Management of Marketing (Asia), Human Resources (Asia), Regional Learning & Development and Store Manager of M&S.

Additionally, students from the same programme also worked with Kongstories. Kingstories is an online platform for companies to sell their products. Students are now working with Kongstories to enhance the performance of its online shop by encouraging the retailers to list their products on the website.

“Sounds of the Sea” for Hong Kong Maritime Museum

With the theme of “Sounds of the Sea” and in collaboration with Hong Kong Maritime Museum (HKMM), students from the Higher Diploma in Arts and Cultural Events Management (which will be revamped as the Higher Diploma in Artiste and Cultural Management from the Academic Year 2021/22) produced a video clip inspiring human interaction with nature. 4 video clips were nominated and posted to the Facebook of HKMM and the public were invited to vote for the most favorite. Finally, the contribution from student Lee Lai Yee received most votes and she was awarded with the winner’s certificate.
